Boomkat Product Review:

Club-ready remixes of folklorist Derek Piotr's beguiling, genre-bending mutations by electro anthem maker Solid Groove, techno veteran Thomas Brinkmann, and Indonesian nutters Gabber Modus Operandi.

Landing right on cue for anyone chasing a '00s electro-tech sound, Solid Groove reworks fragments of the fanciful chamber music to 'Divine Supplication' as a strutting electro-disco budger peppered with dubby bleeps, whereas Brinkmann takes the same elements somewhere totally different, stewed to a sleazy downtempo sludge like a score to an alien knocking shop. Gabber Modus Operandi's freakish, woodcut hardcore remix of 'East Tennessee', as found on the album, complements the set.
